- How much can you make selling eggs? - How many birds is ideal to start with? - When will you become a millionaire in the business? We talked with Frank of First Choice Poultry in Gado Nasco, Kubwa, Abuja as we analysis the poultry business with shocking results.

You are now a professional with it.
Yeah. Like being constant. Checking them up. Always.
Even in the night, mid-night, we do come and check on them because based on their size, if you do not check up on them regularly their maybe stampede related deaths.

So frequently checking up on them will actually reduce mortality rate because they are still fragile. They are still small in size.

OK...That's...
If you can see, we have our charcoal pot.

Ok. That's for warmth?
Yes. To make the place warm because at this age the coop needs to be warm always. Especially at night.

And you know they are all...Most of them are not strong. Not like others.
So those ones that are weak can easily die.

Yes, this is where they drink their water from....
if you can see that one...those ones are drinking water

16 -17 Weeks
(4 Months & 1 Week)

From chicks to layers will take about 16-17 weeks, we will transport them into the battery cages at 14 weeks old 4 laying

1 Year & 8 Months

The birds will then lay eggs for 1 year 8 months until when the production rate slows down below the feeding rate

1 Egg A Day

Eggs gives you returns on the birds and feed.

500 Birds & Above
